

Recofloor™

Vinyl Take-Back Scheme

The flooring industry is not bound by law to recycle waste, but Polyflor is actively seeking to recover and recycle its post consumer waste vinyl flooring to minimise the flooring industry's environmental impact and close the loop of our products' life cycles.

"We are proud to be associated with Recofloor and we actively recycle all our waste vinyl flooring, reducing the impact on the environment.

We are also saving on our disposal costs, a major factor with any business. We will continue with this policy and endeavour to return 100% good quality waste vinyl for eventual use in new products."

Wayne Ede, Managing Director, Westlinks

"The Recofloor service is very convenient for us, especially for contractors who want to drop off small amounts of flooring and it all helps to save money."

Nathan Campling, Director,
Eden Flooring and Interiors

In the Beginning...

A major challenge in the recycling of post-consumer waste was the logistics of retrieving the material, rather than actually recycling it. To try and tackle this issue and actively encourage recycling more waste vinyl flooring, a working group was formed in 2007 with all vinyl flooring manufacturers on board, managed and coordinated by a waste management company.

Funding for this recycling initiative came from WRAP (Waste & Resources Action Programme). Once the trial period and government funding ceased, members had to review the scheme's future. Polyflor continued to run the scheme with another UK manufacturer and in 2009 Recofloor was formed.

As a founding and funding member of Recofloor, Polyflor has helped develop the scheme into the success that it is today – supporting financially; driving the scheme through sales and marketing, as well as logistically supporting with collections, sorting and ultimately recycling.

"I think the Recofloor scheme is brilliant; recycling is the best thing that should happen to old vinyl. I take any vinyl out of the skips, put it into the Recofloor bags and ask the fitters to check for contaminants in their bags too. We do save on disposal costs through the scheme; four bags cost £30 each versus £250 for a skip of the same size - so that's a 50% saving and vinyl is not going into landfill."

Jeff Abbott, Warehouse Manager, Top Floors, Ipswich

About Recofloor

- Polyflor is a cofounder of Recofloor, the industry's leading vinyl take-back scheme for recycling end of life post consumer vinyl flooring in the UK
- Polyflor invests a great deal into Recofloor and helps drive its success by continually promoting it and engaging with customers
- Through Recofloor, Polyflor can recycle sheet and tile installation offcuts, smooth uplifted and loose lay flooring, and old stock roll-ends and samples
- This material is recovered and recycled into new flooring or other useful products such as traffic cones and barriers
- Customers must register with the scheme and then request smaller or larger bulk bags to gather their waste vinyl
- Regardless of waste material volumes, there is an outlet accessible for everyone:
 - For smaller volumes, drop-off sites at distributors are available at no charge

- Larger volumes of waste vinyl can be collected on pallets directly from a live project, on a timed collection when required, or collected from a contractor's site
- There are fees for collections, but compared to the average landfill cost of £122 per tonne these nominal fees can save up to 70%

Recofloor's Progress

Since 2009 Recofloor has achieved a great deal and is now the industry leading facilitator for efficiently reclaiming vinyl flooring, with 507 members on board today. 2010 was a real turning point for the scheme, which saw Recofloor winning the CIWM (Chartered Institute of Waste Management) Award for Environmental Excellence in the category of SME Innovative Practice. Since then, Recofloor has won a BCE (Business Commitment to the Environment) Premier Award and the Gold Award in the International Green Apple Environment Awards 2013, for Environmental Best Practice. Recofloor's 'Cost Calculator', was a great initiative and continues to allow contractors to calculate how much it would cost to send their waste to landfill, and importantly the savings they will generate by using Recofloor instead.

Increasing volumes of quality reclaimed vinyl waste for recycling is continuously improving (a challenge has been educating members about the importance of the material they send back through the Recofloor scheme and avoiding contamination, which is not always easy on a busy building site). Volumes are consistently strong, with 5,391 tonnes having been collected since the scheme started in 2009. This volume equals nearly 1,925,357m² or 48,134 x 20m rolls of Polyflor Palettone PUR floor covering - that's enough vinyl waste flooring to cover nearly 270 football pitches. This has had a positive impact on CO₂ emissions too, saving over 6,601 tonnes of CO₂ - the same as taking 1,723 cars off the road or driving 612,000 times around the M60.

Many thanks go to our customers who have embraced and supported this unique scheme. Distributors' involvement has certainly contributed to Recofloor's success. By acting as drop-off sites for their customers, distributors have increased the accessibility of Recofloor making it even easier for contractors to dispose of their waste vinyl flooring and today, there are 58 drop-off sites nationwide. The drop-off sites have also facilitated Recofloor's collection and recycling process. Furthermore, CO₂ emissions have been reduced by minimising needless drop-off and pick-up journeys.

Scheme Benefits

- The drop-off sites are free of charge. For non-timed collections (from contractors sites) and timed collections (from live projects), there are nominal fees of around £10 and £17.50 per bag respectively, which could save members up to 70% by recycling through Recofloor, rather than landfilling (costing £122 per tonne)
- Recofloor ties in with site waste management requirements
- Certificates of commitment are awarded to impress and gain new contracts
- Recofloor Awards – Gold, Silver and Bronze certificates are issued to members who have significantly recycled, as well as awards for numerous categories such as 'Distributor of the Year'; 'Contractor of the Year' and 'Project of the Year'
- Customers are keen to see their flooring waste recycled
- Recofloor can be specified as an outlet for vinyl waste in tenders
- Could help achieve extra points on BREEAM® & LEED® assessments

"We've increased the number of collections at Cardiff and Recofloor is very good at responding to our requirements. We encourage our customers to take part and give them free Recofloor sacks to keep their vans and site tidy. They can then drop off waste vinyl at any of our depots – it's a free service.

"It's important to EMPHASISE the BENEFITS because it really is a 'WIN-WIN' situation for EVERYBODY."

2020 Recofloor Awards

For the 9th year running, the annual awards rewarded members for their hard work and efforts in recycling vinyl waste flooring.

Sadly, given the unprecedented circumstances of 2020, we were unable to host a physical awards ceremony as we had planned. It is important to acknowledge our members' commitments and identify top performers and present them with awards, so we opted for an online announcement through social media, posting out awards and certificates accordingly.

When we approach new contractors, we tell them we’re part of Recofloor and ask if we can agree on a recycling strategy to promote our green credentials – and theirs.

“When we call the Recofloor team to arrange a collection, there are never any issues and everything is very well organised.”

Distributors can issue flooring contractors with free Recofloor sacks in which to collect installation vinyl flooring waste. To become a drop-off site space is required in the yard for a collection bin, so contractors can return the filled bags when collecting new supplies.
